The Case for Eliminating Land-based Nuclear Missiles:

Why 450 Minuteman III Missiles in the Upper Midwest are a Danger to Us All!

Monday, March 7, 2016
4:30 PM Oberlin College in King 106
and
7:15 Kendal Auditorium

In the 1980s John LaForge visited all 1,000 U.S. land-based missiles. Since 1992 he has worked on the staff of Nukewatch, a nuclear watchdog and environmental justice group in Wisconsin. Articles on nuclear weapons, reactors, radioactive waste and militarism have appeared in The Progressive, New Internationalist, and other publications. He has served over four years in jail and prison for nonviolent protests, and is a 2004 recipient of the Peace & Justice Studies Association’s Social Courage Award.

Sponsored by Community Peace Builders, Peace and Conflict Studies, Politics Department and PACS Connections Group